With Quick Blogcast, you can add a YouTube® video to a blog entry. However, you must have a valid YouTube account. Registering with YouTube is free of charge, and you can register at YouTube.com. To insert a YouTube video into a blogcast entry, it must be added to your favorites in YouTube. To Add a Video to Your Favorites in YouTube Log in to your YouTube account Select a video that you want to add to your favorites list. Click Save to Favorites. Check Favorites. Select a playlist in Add Video to Playlist (Optional). Click OK. To Add a YouTube Video in an Entry From the Manage Entries menu, select New Entry. From the formatting toolbar above the text entry area, click the multimedia icon. (This icon is the green film strip on the far right side.) If necessary, select the YouTube account that contains the video you want to add. Click the thumbnail of the video you want to add. Click OK.
