

Title: Changing Your Desktop Notifier Settings

Subtitle: Email

Author: Jane83

Date: 2008/3/18

URL: <http://www.powerhoster.com/domainhosting/modules/article/view.article.php/c17/2100>

Keywords: Desktop Notifier Settings

On the Web-Based Email Desktop Notifier Settings page, you can set when, how often, and how many notifications you want to receive. You can also add, edit, or delete email addresses that you want the Desktop Notifier to check. Run on Windows Login Select this option if you want the Desktop Notifier application to start when you log in to Windows. Use Web-Based Email for mailto: links Select this option if you want to use Web-Based Email to compose your messages when you click a mailto link in an HTML page. This includes subject, cc, bcc, and body settings. Check every... Sets the frequency with which the Desktop Notifier checks for new email messages. The default options are 2, 5, 10, 15, and 30 minutes. Optionally, you can type a frequency of your choice in the field, up to a maximum frequency of 4 hours. Display for Sets the amount of time that a message displays in the New Message window. The default options are 4, 8, and 15 seconds. Optionally, you can type a number of your choice in the field, up to a maximum of 30 seconds. Show Sets the maximum number of messages to show notifications for individually as well as when you select Show New Email from the Options menu. The default options are 3, 5, or 10 messages. Optionally, you can type a number of your choice in the field, up to a maximum of 30 messages. Email Address(es) Lists the email addresses you have enabled for your Desktop Notifier. You can add up to 5 email addresses. Click Add Email Address to add an email address. Click Edit or Delete to edit or delete an email address, respectively. NOTE: You can only add email addresses that are set up through your Web-Based Email account.