If you purchased a qualifying product, you may have Microsoft® adCenter credits in your account.

NOTE: Microsoft adCenter is only available for customers whose billing address is located within the 50 United States or Washington, D.C. and will be available in your account within 48 hours of your qualifying product purchase. To Redeem your Microsoft adCenter Credit Log in to the Account Manager. In the My Account section, click Google and Microsoft Ad Credits. On the Advertising Credits page, click the Order ID for the advertising credit you want to use. In the Ad Credit Details section, click Receive My Credit Now. Click the Sign Up link. Follow the instructions on the Microsoft adCenter site to create your account and redeem your credit.
